

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. It has mostly stopped annoying and unsolicited phone calls at my home. We can eat dinner without being interrupted. The Indiana TP is a good law.